KALANIANA'OLE RENOMINATED

ATKINSON THE HEAD OF REPUBLICAN TERRITORIAL CENTRAL COMMITTEE

PRINCE JONAH KUHIO KALANIANA'OLE, REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE FOR DELEGATE TO CONGRESS.

Prince Jonah Kalaniana'ole was renominated for Delegate to Congress after the platform had been adopted as read, at the Republican Territorial convention yesterday afternoon. After that the new Territorial party organization was smoothly effected, concluding the business.

The organization that is to direct the Territorial affairs of the party for the coming two years is as follows:

Executive Committee.
A. L. C. Atkinson, chairman; Archie Mahaulu, vice chairman; A. D. Castro, secretary; J. P. Cooke, treasurer; Otto W. Rose, H. L. Holstein, W. T. Robinson, E. N. Voeller, N. Fernandez and W. H. Rice.

Central Committee
First District—Otto W. Rose, E. H. Austin, Frank G. da Rosa, E. W. Barnard.
Second District—C. Wolters, J. D. Paris, H. L. Holstein, John Kaelema-kule.
Third District—C. A. Peck, R. H. Hitecock, W. Keanu, George H. Dunn, W. T. Robinson, M. H. Reuter.
Fourth District—A. L. C. Atkinson, J. P. Cooke, A. D. Castro, E. A. C. Long, C. N. Marques, E. J. Lord.
Fifth District—N. Fernandez, Louis J. Feary, E. N. Voeller, Eugene Aliu, A. S. Mahaulu, E. B. Makalemi.
Sixth District—W. H. Rice, G. P. Wilcox, James K. Kula, James K. Lota.

THE PROCEEDINGS.

On motion of Mr. Fitzsimmons, seconded by Mr. Chamberlain, the platform was adopted as read.

A. L. C. Atkinson, on the call for nomination of candidate for Delegate to Congress, rose and spoke to the following effect:

"Six years ago the Republican party picked out an inexperienced boy and sent him to Congress. Four years ago at Wailuku they sent this young man to Congress again. Two years ago at Hilo they sent him to Congress for the third time.

"Today we are called on again to choose a Delegate to Congress to be elected by the Republican party. We should not be hasty about this. Let us examine the results of our delegate's work and judge him accordingly. He has secured appropriations for the Territory of Hawaii including:

"Appropriations and authorizations for dredging Honolulu harbor and widening the entrance;
"Dredging Pearl Harbor and widening the entrance;
"Naval station for Pearl Harbor, including drydocks for battleships;
"Lot for public building;
"Appropriation for public building for Honolulu;

"Hilo breakwater, that is to make Hilo harbor better than Honolulu's;
"Lighthouses for all the islands, including the biggest light in America for Makapu Point, the gateway of Hawaii;

"Lighthouse tender;
"Appropriation for legislative expenses;
"Appropriation for the study of leprosy;
"Appropriation for the agricultural college;

"Appropriation for the Alaskan fair;
"Moreover, Delegate Kalaniana'ole has secured for us the right to vote for county boards of supervisors and other public boards. This is a record to be proud of, to which the Republicans of Hawaii can point with pride. Jonah Kalaniana'ole has proved himself to be the Napoleon of the Pacific. He has done a man's work and gained results of which any man might be proud. I do not see any need for a change. There has been no sign from the business community that any change is desired in that quarter. Let us nominate with one glad acclaim, as candidate for Delegate to Congress, Jonah Kūhiō Kalaniana'ole." (Great applause.)

Senator Lane seconded the nomination eloquently in Hawaiian.

On motion of Mr. Pihana the nominations were closed and the secretary was instructed to cast the unanimous ballot of the convention for Kalaniana'ole.

Messrs. Robertson, Lane and Atkinson were appointed by Chairman von Holt to escort the nominee to the platform, to which he had been loudly called for a speech.

Delegate Kalaniana'ole addressed the convention as follows:

"After the several times you have been good enough to nominate me as your candidate I have always been called upon to speak, but so far I have never been able to make a speech excepting in the campaigns. I am not a speaker, I am a worker. It is hard for a man to blow his own horn, but at the same time I have to point to the results of the work I have done at Washington, and results count. The party has shown its faith in me again, and I appreciate the confidence you have put in me. I can assure you that having that confidence I will keep on doing always what I can for the good of the Territory.

"There is one thing I want to say from the reports that I have heard, there seems to be a feeling that things are arising within the Republican party that, if continued, will break that party up. I do not know how true the reports are, but it is said that some who want to be candidates are threatening to withdraw from the party and go out with the knife if they do not get what they want. This will kill the party.

"For the sake of the Territory I hope that such feelings will not prevail. So long as the Republican party continues in power the Territory will continue to advance, and I want the party to stick together for the advancement of our Territory and not to divide and turn the government over to the Democrats.

"I have listened to the reading of the platform and I can say that I can stand on that platform, and on it I hope to see every Republican candidate stand and be elected."

Containing in Hawaiian, the candidate spoke on the immigration plank of the platform, criticizing the Democrats for having dodged the issue because they thought that by keeping away from it they could get Hawaiian votes.

The issue was before the people and had to be met fairly, not run away from. He knew that the Hawaiians thought that the introduction of white laborers here would result in their being outvoted, but Hawaiians must remember that this was America, where every citizen had the same right, be he haole or Hawaiian. The country needed white laborers and they would have to come.

THE ORGANIZATION.

On the order for electing a Territorial Central Committee a recess was declared by the chair to permit of caucusing by districts. On reassembling the secretary read the results of the election which are given above.

A vote of thanks to J. C. Cohen for the use of the Orpheum was moved by J. P. Cooke and cordially passed.

Mr. Atkinson, the newly chosen leader, being called on for a speech said:

"I sincerely thank you for the confidence you have put in me, and would say that by your help I hope to win this election for the Republican party. Let everybody go back to his own district and work."

He said he had made an estimate that an average of 51 votes from each precinct was all that was needed, and he hoped before long to have a report that every precinct had its 51.

"Roll up a bigger majority for the Delegate than has ever been rolled up before. As for the other officers to be elected I hope that every delegate will vote for the Republican ticket."

Here A. G. M. Robertson called for three cheers for the straight ticket which were given with vim.

Judge Mahaulu moved a vote of thanks to A. G. M. Robertson, the retiring chairman, "who has managed the party so well for four years."

The motion was carried with a unanimous rising vote and three cheers for Robertson.

Mr. Robertson being called on for a speech, thanked the convention very much for its expression of confidence accorded him. He retired from the management very cheerfully and with the best wishes for the success of his successor. The position was a very difficult one to fill. Though since the organization of county committees much work had been taken off the Territorial committee yet a great deal of responsibility remained. While not able to give all the time he wished to the duties he had given all the time he could. He had not given all the time he could to everybody but was glad to find he had given satisfaction to good Republicans throughout the Territory.

"I am free to say, Mr. Robertson continued, "that I am not a split ticket man, but am for the straight ticket every time. I do not think it is true that any considerable portion of the Republican party in this country is in favor of government by commission. I think I would be a traitor to my country if I were in favor of that proposition. (Loud applause.) Everything looks favorable. On Hawaii things are not just right, but from the other islands the reports are favorable. With a little hard work the party will be successful. At the head of our ticket is Kalaniana'ole who is entitled to a rousing majority. We have good men in our county convention and even if everybody who is nominated is not an angel I believe in supporting the straight ticket."

On motion of Mr. Rice, seconded by Judge Mahaulu, the convention at 4:51 adjourned.

the ground, wounding me badly, but by a chance provision I had brought in my valise a flash of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and after using it I was able to continue my journey the following day as if nothing had happened. I never tire of praising this popular liniment of old recommending it." For sale by all dealers, Benson, Smith & Co., Agents for Hawaii.

YANKEE DISCERNMENT.

The American in the corner of the non-smoking first-class carriage insisted on lighting his cigar. The indignant Britisher in the other corner protested, but in vain. At the next station he hailed the guard with hostile intent, but in vain. At the next station he for him.

"Guard," he drawled, "I think you'll find that this gentleman is traveling with a third-class ticket on him!"

Investigation proved him to be right, and the indignant Britisher was ejected. A spectator of the little scene asked the triumphant American how he knew about that ticket.

"Well," explained the imperturbable stranger, "it was sticking out of his pocket and I saw it was the same color as mine."

TO INCREASE THE TRANSPORT SERVICE

WASHINGTON, September 5.—It may be a significant fact that the War Department wants to strengthen the transport service. There are signs of a renewal of the fight which is made almost annually by the transportation firms on the west coast against this service. One of the regular duties of the Quartermaster-General of the Army and the Secretary of War is destined to be a demonstration to Congress of the economy and other merits of the Government system of getting supplies and troops and animals to and from stations beyond the continental limits.

If there is any occasion for further legislation in that direction, say Army officers, it ought to be in establishing the transport service with greater permanency and with better facilities for future emergencies. The matter is bound to receive Congressional attention sooner or later. There is less and less reason, think the War Department authorities, for abandoning Government control of shipment of troops and supplies.

"The aim will be to extend the system under such conditions and in such ways as will furnish the War Department with means of fully coping with the emergency of war, when it will be desirable, both for economical and strategic reasons, to escape from the capacity of transportation companies, whose opportunity will be greater than their patriotism.
